Historical Background

Come From Away is based on real events that unfolded on September 11, 2001. When the U.S. airspace was shut down following the terrorist attacks, thousands of airline passengers were forced to land unexpectedly in Gander, a small town in Newfoundland, Canada. The town's population of around 9,000 suddenly doubled as these stranded travelers sought refuge and safety. The story is rooted in interviews and firsthand accounts collected by the show's creators, Irene Sankoff and David Hein, who initially conceived the musical after visiting Gander and speaking with locals and passengers. Their research was meticulous, capturing the emotional nuances of that pivotal moment in history.

The creators worked closely with Gander residents and survivors, ensuring authenticity and respect for the real-life stories. The musical premiered in 2016 at the La Jolla Playhouse in California before transferring to Broadway in 2017.
